You've got all of the benefits that come along with working for a big company like this and but all the benefits that you get from a start-up, because we're agile and the way we work is good fun and we do good projects and work on difficult things, it's really good. It's a great place to be a parent. I'm a parent and I've got a two-year-old daughter at home, that is the best thing that's ever happened to me to be honest and look forward to going home and seeing her every night and put her bed and I get to do that almost every night.
