

KPMG – Recruiter top tips

Transcription

So, my first top tip when applying for KPMG, is to make sure that you understand the business area that you are applying for and the best way to do this is to go on the careers website.

My second piece of advice is to practice as much as possible. So, that can be with your careers team at university that can be with your friends, just make sure that you feel comfortable in the answers that you are delivering.

My next piece of advice is to really think about why you want to choose KPMG over any other employer. And finally, if you have any questions or any concerns, do make sure you get in contact with the student recruitment team.

My top tips for applying to KPMG is first of all, do your research we've got a wide range of programmes so, understand which one is right for you.

My top tip is to be yourself, be honest and do lots of research.
